Art Association

Founded in 1947

where ART happens and is celebrated!

Our History and Mission:

Founded in 1947, the Jackson Art Association includes professional and amateur artists of all ages, as well as those interested in supporting the visual arts. Our mission is to enrich the appreciation of visual art by fostering fellowship among artists of all levels in Jackson and the surrounding areas. We provide opportunities for creative expression through diverse mediums, we support artistic growth, and encourage public engagement with the visual arts.

We welcome artists of all skill levels and in all media, including painting, drawing, mixed media, sculpting, photography, and fabric art.

JAA Membership includes:

- Artist demos, presentations & workshops
- Hands-on experiences
- Plein Air Opportunities
- Life Drawing Opportunities (Must be 18+ to attend)
